But his ears were not the only things that have been enhanced for the new season. The petite blonde's toned physique and her trademark bobbed haircut have been toned up considerably for the new season of Pretty Little Liars, on Freeform. The new season of the hit Aussie drama has also unveiled a few new secrets, with some of the characters in the Liars' clique cluing the viewer into new relationships and the show's villains sharing some pretty juicy revelations too. In the promo clip, an ominous Paige (Lindsey Shaw) warns of the "something strange" coming into play, as her character's tale of betrayals continues. "My father was a murderer, but the police are after him," she says. "There's been another murder. It's my father." To think, the first season of the drama was about the body count. The Aussie series, which dropped back in January, has racked up an impressive 17 million viewers per episode — though it's been based on a book series by Sara Shepard. Shocked fans of the popular book series will be pleased to learn that there will be a sixth instalment on the way and that the show will not be recast following the renewal of the show for a second season. The drama is returning in March. Pair on! The 1st annual Superhero Blooper Challenge is Here! Watch out for the winning entries. Submit yours now! Use #H2SuperHero to submit your entry.
