ATTENTION. If it is your first time playing, you may need to download some additional fonts in order to meet the requirements of the game. Please refer to the image below if there are any problems when logging in.

Please note that the requirement of the NPCdance font from FF XI on this image is not applicable if you are playing on the desktop version of the game.

With the purpose of becoming a superior hero in the Lands Between, our main objective is to collect unique weapons from various adventurers.

Even though your character is going through town and over countryside, you can soon reach the Prontera. In this place, there are different adventurers selling their items for money. You will need to go there and speak with them if you want to have the item the first time.

Once you buy the item, you will receive it using the real-time bank that you transfer funds using.

Once you reach the auction house, you can browse the items on sale and find a weapon you want to buy. After you buy, if you have enough gold coins, you will receive it at the auction house when you leave the game.

On the auction table, you can check and buy a weapon as you please. Since this is a real-time auction where you can buy time passes, it is best to buy
