A former member of the Young Women General Presidency, I am thrilled to report to you the Conference of Young Women President's coming up this summer in September. There will be over 500 leaders of the Church to be there for their devotions, interviews, and insights on key leadership issues. In the past, as a stake president and as a regional president, I welcomed this conference as an opportunity to continue on my journey in God's service. This year, I intend to expand my agenda and goals to include all young women. In the past, I have had the opportunity to open my doors to young women who may not attend regularly as members, as well as to invite them to join me at the World Conference in October. I am so glad that you stood on the word of God and put it into action. I know that there is really no substitute for the Giver of life. I am excited for you because the Lord is sovereign and He will do what He will do. For me its an unseen grace. If you have not heard the voice of the Lord, you will be looking for a voice that can speak what the Lord wants you to do. I know that you will get your nursing degree and other degrees that you want to pursue. I will pray for you that you will love and know the Lord and that He will make the final cut for your life. This is the woman who has this vision of good. This is the woman I hope you see in this day and every day. This is the woman who, through the power of the Holy Ghost, will become like her Savior. She will leave behind this vision of God. She will leave behind the natural man and put on the spiritual man and woman. This woman will focus on what is eternal. She will be so animated and centered that she will matter. She will declare her vision. She will make changes in her life to say no to the natural man and yes to the spiritual man and woman. She will start that journey and she will know where she is going. She will have a vision and purpose and intentions. And she will do whatever is necessary to get there. Not only will she start, but she will finish. She will finish her epic quest. She will finish her journey with the women in her life. She will finish her journey from the woman who loves a body that is ever-changing to the woman who is more than body. She will finish her journey from the woman who loves to talk and be a part of circles of women to the woman who is complete. She will finish her journey from the woman who loves her mind, wisdom, and soul to the woman who loves her, her own greatest being. She will finish her journey from the woman who is in love with the providence of God to the woman who loves the providence of the Creator. She will finish her journey from the woman who loves herself with tenderness to the woman who loves herself with kindness and mercy. She will finish her journey from the woman who believes she is a witch and sorceress to the woman who knows her divinity. She will finish her journey from the woman who simply hates to the woman who is love. She will finish her journey from the woman who might commit sins to the woman who will never commit sin. She will finish her journey from the woman who would never die to the woman who will live forever.
